

Evolis corporate fact sheet

www.evolis.com

Core business

Evolis designs, manufactures and markets an extended range of printing systems for plastic cards.

These systems deliver personalized, encoded and secured cards, instantly: access badges, transit passes, student cards, payment cards, ID cards, driver's licenses, etc.

Target

Make plastic card printing widely available and affordable by offering simple, on-demand quality solutions matched with competitive pricing.

Company – Key facts and figures

- 2000 : Setting up of Evolis and its business development
- 2010 turnover: € 42,5 M (USD 56,5 M)
- European leader
- An export market that represents 90% of sales
- A global distribution network spanning 125 countries
- 160+ employees worldwide
- Headquarters and production site in Angers, France
- Sales offices in Miami and Singapore, Tokyo
- Investment in R&D as percentage of Sales Turnover: 4%
- A full range of systems for plastic card customization: 7 product ranges (from monochrome or color printing, single-sided until high volume personalization, dual-sided)

Products

Evolis has a solution for every need; from basic printing in low volumes, to advanced personalization and encoding of highly secured cards:

- Printing in color or monochrome and with photo-grade quality.
- Graphic personalization: pictures, logos, texts, barcodes and more.
- Data encoding: magnetic stripe, contact smart card, contactless cards (RFID). These encoding options can be combined.

Key markets

Plastic cards are ubiquitous in our daily life, as we carry identification cards, payment cards, transportation passes, access badges and more. Each of us holds and uses personalized and encoded cards!

The main markets are:

Identification and access control - Governments and local authorities – Healthcare – Public transit systems – Payment - Event management - Consumer loyalty programs – Education - Leisure and entertainment

Shareholders

In 2000, five professionals from the card industry founded Evolis.

These 5 partners with more than 15 years of experience are still holding together 65% of company shares.

Financial information

Evolis is listed on the Alternext stock exchange as "FR0004166197 - ALTVO".